BASIC SASL VOCABULARY KIT

Welcome to our introductory South African Sign Language (SASL) vocabulary curriculum. We are so excited to have developed this foundational SASL vocabulary kit of just over 300 words along with "Einstein Hands" as we know that every Teacher, Parent and family member of a deaf or hard of hearing child needs some basic building blocks of vocabulary in this new language, South African Sign Language.

This set of vocabulary has been developed with specific core themes in mind; themes that all teachers, families and friends can use to begin communicating with their young deaf child. This resource has not been developed to serve as a dictionary, but rather as a foundational resource as you start to learn this rich and beautiful language. South African Sign Language, as with all other languages in South Africa, has a large and varied vocabulary and so it wont surprise you that there are variations and differences to some of the signs you will learn here.

I would love to share with you some examples of how we hope you will be able to use this curriculum, but would also like to hear from you, as you begin to play with and become creative with these first 300 signs.

- Build basic vocabulary before you even need to communicate – choose one theme a week/ a month and read through them, signing and saying each word/ sign out loud. Sit in front of a mirror and copy the sign and then consider if it looks the way you see it in the book. Focus on your handshape and the direction of your hand, as the clarity of your signing is as important as pronouncing a word correctly. If there is any movement in the sign, the picture will have an arrow showing you the direction of the movement.
- Sign Language has both one-handed and two-handed signs and one usually signs one-handed signs with the dominant hand (the hand you write with) and then in two-handed signs, your dominant hand is usually the one that is the most active.

- Fingerspelling (A-Z) and numbers (1-10) are usually signed with your dominant hand and it's a good idea to start practicing both your alphabet and numbers so that you become fluent before you even need to use it with your young learner / child. As with hearing children, spelling does not become a core part of communication until a little later, but you will definitely need to know how to fingerspell your name when introducing yourself, as you get started.

As you learn the vocabulary, make note of the signs that are "nouns" (bread, milk, water, chicken, fruit etc) and "verbs" (want, like, choose, eat, drink). This is important, as we would encourage you to use every opportunity to communicate naturally (in little sentences) and not just in separate signs/ words.

Some examples of these are:

- Making statements: I am hungry. You are thirsty. I feel hot.
- Asking questions: Are you thirsty? Would you like some juice? Where is your hat?
- Using directive language: Eat your food. Fetch your shoes. Put your glass down gently

This is the beginning of a wonderful journey as a teacher, friend or parent of a deaf child, one with exciting and sometimes overwhelming challenges. Be brave and sign as often as you can, don't be scared of making mistakes and have fun. Go up to Deaf adults you may see in the shops and introduce yourself, ask when you don't know and always make a way even when you don't know a sign yet (act it out, draw/get the object) ... and then make a note to find the sign later.

There are many other resources you will be able to find and use on the internet, apps, and websites, and though overwhelming always remember the precious reason for learning this unique new language ... building a relationship with your deaf learner/child.

Dear Parents of deaf children

As a parent of a deaf child, I understand the task that you see in front of you. That being, the task of learning Sign Language to communicate with your child. I know that it seems daunting, and that you may have your doubts as to whether you are able to do this. I also know that every time you see signing hands, you are reminded again that things are not how you hoped they would be.

You are NOT alone though, there are so many of us who have found ourselves feeling overwhelmed by the task of learning sign language. Learning to communicate with your deaf child is something that you CAN do! Imagine how wonderful it will be to be able to discuss anything with them!

Our deaf children want to see that we love them and that we accept them. One of the ways that we show them love, is through learning to communicate with them. They are worth our efforts and the relationship with them is one that can be really beautiful.

We have made this little resource to help you learn to sign. At first it might seem like there are a lot of new words, but as you learn a few each day, eventually you will know them all. We have chosen themes that fellow parents have identified, as being themes relevant to the home and family.

This is not a dictionary...there are a lot more signs that you can and will learn...this is meant to be a good start for you. Like any language, learning Sign Language can be a life long journey.

Please do not worry about any signs that might look a little different to some that your child uses. These are called "dialects", and we have quite a few in South Africa. They are simple variations that are all part of South African Sign Language.

What happens if you don't know a sign that you need? Here are a few ideas...

- 1.) Keep a little piece of paper where you can write down any signs that come up which are not in this book, but that you need or want to know. Next time you are at your child's school, find a staff member who can teach you the signs. If your cell phone can take videos, video the person showing the signs, so that you can practice over and over at home.
- 2.) Make friends with a deaf adult from the school or your community. Ask them to help you learn Sign Language. If you both have WhatsApp, they can send you videoed signs as you need.

- 3.) Get your child to be your teacher. Before they are able to read, show them things and see if they can show you the signs. Once they can read, write words down that they can teach you signs for.
- 4.) When all else fails, make up the sign. Use your home-made sign to allow for meaningful communication with your child. Then when you are next at the school, or when your child learns the correct sign, you can learn the real sign and use that from then on.

Start by learning the alphabet really well. The alphabet makes up most of the hand shapes that you will use when you sign. It will also help you use words that there might not be exact signs for. The alphabet is especially helpful in giving you a tool to use to spell a word out to a deaf person who can then show you the sign for that word.

Then set yourself some goals. Learn 3 signs a day, and every evening test yourself on the signs that you have already learned. Find a friend, a family member or a neighbour, who can learn the signs with you. Test each other and make it fun!

If you want to communicate with your deaf child who uses sign language, you're going to need to take that first step. Be brave! We expect our children to be brave daily as they do new things or meet new people, now is the time for us to do similarly. The more signs you learn, the easier it will be to learn more. Don't feel limited by this book, feel free to go out there and learn other signs.

Once you have learned all the signs in this book, you would have learned a lot, and will have the foundation for growing your South African Sign Language fluency. See this as a challenge. A good challenge that will give you the tools to get to know your child better and allow you to chat about the things in life that matter. Your child is worth it, and I know that you can do it!

With understanding and respect

Beste Ouers van Dowe kinders

Ek is self 'n ouer van 'n Dowe kind en verstaan die taak wat vir julle voorlê: die taak om Gebare Taal aan te leer sodat julle met julle kind kan kommunikeer. Ek besef die vooruitsig kan angswekkend wees en dat julle dalk voel die taak is net te groot. Ek weet ook dat elke keer wanneer julle hande sien wat Gebare Taal gebruik, julle weereens herinner word aan die feit dat die hele situasie nie presies is soos wat julle gehoop het dit sal wees nie.

Julle is egter nie alleen nie; daar is so baie van ons wat oorweldig gevoel het toe ons besef het ons moet Gebare Taal leer. Om te leer om met jou kind te kommunikeer is iets wat julle KAN doen! Dink net hoe wonderlik dit sal wees om absoluut enigiets met julle kind te kan bespreek!

Ons Dowe kinders wil sien dat ons hulle lief het en dat ons hulle aanvaar. Een van die maniere waardeur ons vir hulle kan wys hoe lief ons hulle het, is deur te leer om met hulle te kommunikeer. Hulle is die moeite werd en die verhouding wat ons met hulle kan hê is van onskatbare waarde.

Ons het hierdie hulpbron saamgestel om julle te help om te leer hoe om Gebare Taal te gebruik. Aan die begin mag dit dalk voel asof daar 'n magdom nuwe woorde is, maar soos julle daaglik 'n paar woorde leer sal julle gou almal ken. Ons het temas gekies wat mede-ouers uitgewys het as toepaslik vir die huis en gesin.

Hierdie is nie 'n volledige woordeboek nie en daar is nog baie meer gebare wat julle kan (en sal) leer. Hierdie hulpbron is slegs 'n goeie beginpunt. Soos met enige taal is die aanleer van Gebare Taal 'n lewenslange reis.

Moet asseblief nie bekommerd wees as julle kind gebare gebruik wat anders lyk as die gebare in hierdie hulpbron nie. Hierdie gebare word "dialekte" genoem en ons het heelwat daarvan in Suid-Afrika. Dit is eenvoudige variasies wat almal deel is van Suid-Afrikaanse Gebare Taal.

Wat gebeur as julle 'n gebaar nie ken nie, maar wel benodig? Hier is 'n paar idees:

- 1.) Hou 'n stukkie papier byderhand waarop julle enige gebare wat julle nodig kry, maar wat nie in hierdie hulpbron is nie, neerskryf. Tydens julle volgende besoek aan julle kind se skool, kan julle een van die personelede vra vir hulp. As julle selfoon videos kan neem, neem 'n video van die persoon sodat julle die gebaar oor en oor kan oefen.

- 2.) Maak vriende met 'n Dowe volwassene verbode aan die skool of in julle gemeenskap. Vra hulle om julle te help om Gebare Taal te leer. As julle beide WhatsApp het, kan hulle vir julle videos van gebare stuur soos wat julle dit nodig kry.
- 3.) Vra julle kind om julle onderwyser/es te wees. As hy/sy nog kan nie lees nie, wys na voorwerpe en vra hom/haar om vir julle die ooreenstemmende gebaar te wys. As hy/sy kan lees, skryf die woorde waarvoor julle gebare benodig neer.
- 4.) As daar geen ander uitweg is nie, maak julle eie gebaar op. Gebruik julle tuisgemaakte gebare om betekenisvolle kommunikasie met julle kind te bewerkstellig. Julle kan met julle volgende skoolbesoek of wanneer julle kind die korrekte gebaar aanleer, die regte gebaar begin gebruik.

Begin deur die alfabet baie goed te leer ken. Die alfabet bevat meeste van die handvorme wat julle gaan gebruik en dit sal julle ook help om woorde te gebruik waarvoor daar nie presiese gebare is nie. Die alfabet is veral handig om te gebruik om 'n woord uittespel vir 'n Dowe persoon wat dan vir julle die regte gebaar kan wys.

Besluit dan op 'n paar doelwitte. Leer daagliks 3 gebare en elke aand kan julle juisself toets om seker te maak julle ken die gebare wat julle reeds aangeleer het. Vind 'n vriend, familielid of buurvrou wat die gebare saam met julle sal leer. Dit kan pret wees om mekaar te toets!

As jy met jou Dowe kind wat Gebare Taal gebruik wil kommunikeer, gaan jy die eerste stap moet neem. Wees dapper! Ons verwag dat ons kinders elke dag moet dapper wees soos hulle nuwe dinge leer en nuwe mense ontmoet; nou moet ons dieselfde doen. Hoe meer gebare julle leer, hoe makliker sal dit raak om meer te leer. Moenie beperk voel deur hierdie boek nie, gaan uit en leer nog ander gebare.

Sodra julle al die gebare in die hierdie boek geleer het, het julle baie geleer en het julle 'n sterk fondasie om julle vlotheid in Suid-Afrikaanse Gebare Taal verder te ontwikkel. Sien dit as 'n uitdaging. 'n Goeie uitdaging wat julle die toerusting gaan gee om julle kind beter te leer ken en julle gaan toelaat om oor belangrike dinge te gesels. Julle kind is dit werd en ek weet julle kan dit doen!

Met begrip en respek
